Built in 1939 by the Hudsons as the headquarters of 1st Nat'l Bank. Served as such until 1960's, when headquarters was moved to US1 + Colorado.

PROPERTY ADDRESS: 1 SW Osceola Street

2002 Picture

Year built	1939
Style	N/A
Original Use	N/A
1991 Use	N/A
Current Use	Commercial
Name of business	The Jolly Sailor Pub
Assessed Value - Land (2002)	$373,854
Assessed Value - Improvements (2002)	$757,155
Total Assessed Value (2002)	$1,131,009
Total Taxable Value (2002)	$1,131,009
Ratio Land:Improvements (2002 Assessed Values)	.49/1

SAVE!

Built 1904 by Francis Marion Platt of Indiantown, so that his children could attend school "in town". This is a frame vernacular house, not masonry since no block was available here until 1913-14. Very historically significant