PRESENTATIONS

- 1. Presentation by Calvin, Giordano & Associates, Inc. on the overall strategies to celebrate local history and the contributing members of the East Stuart community.
Presentation will include specific examples on how the City can utilize Guy Davis Park as a base to celebrate (a) Mr. Guy Davis, (b) important educators in the community, (c) the role of women leadership, (d) important Black-owned businesses, and (e) the historical migration of pioneer families that populated early East Stuart. Strategies for deploying celebration and identification markers will be provided, with specific examples of how these could look, utilizing the historical information furnished to date by the community. Feedback will be solicited from the community on design revisions, which will be incorporated into an overall plan that will be presented to City Commission at a future date.

2. Presentation by Kimley Horn & Associates, Inc. on the strategies to celebrate local history and the contributing members of the East Stuart community.

Presentation will include specific examples on how the City can celebrate (a) law enforcement and veterans and (b) Martin Luther King on the MLK Boulevard project. Strategies for incorporating these moments of celebration will be provided, with specific examples of how these could look, utilizing the historical information furnished to date by the community. Feedback will be solicited from the community on design revisions, which will be incorporated into an overall plan that will be presented to City Commission at a future date.
